PAUL HARGREAVES

Business Owner, Author and Speaker

Paul Hargreaves is one of the leading voices in the UK encouraging and inspiring businesses to become Forces for Good, the title of his first book. Increasingly consumers are buying from companies that have a purpose aside from shareholder gains and it is essential that businesses care for people and planet first and the profits will follow.

However this change will only come through a new breed of compassionate leaders and this is Paul's Fourth Bottom Line and the title of his second book, published in 2021. Not only will these leaders lead more successful businesses and organisations but they will be more fulfilled and leave behind a greater legacy.

Why book Paul as a speaker?

- Paul has been running a successful purpose-driven business for 22 years.
- He can help you change the way you work and considering the impact of the decisions you make so you that can become a business that reduces poverty, injustice and environmental damage by find their true purpose
- He can help you become a more successful business that makes the world a better place by being better for people and the planet, and at the same time better for profit.
- He can help you discover that by reaching out to the world, you will become more fulfilled and happier entrepreneurs and business people.
